

SCOTTISH LAWYERS' EUROPEAN GROUP & IN-HOUSE LAWYERS GROUP
THE MYSTERY OF THE UNDERTAKING

Speakers: Jim McLean, Burness LLP
Date & Time: Wednesday 20th February 2008 at 6.00pm (presentation at 6.30pm)
Venue: The Law Society of Scotland, 26 Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh

The Scottish Lawyers European Group and In-House Lawyers Group are delighted to welcome Jim McLean to speak on the topic of The Mystery of the Undertaking: Competition law. In his talk he will consider the following questions: "Mystery": whence and why? Resolution of Mystery: why and how? Policy Implications.

Jim McLean has a BA in English Law and an LLB in Scots Law. He was admitted as a solicitor in 1972 and joined W & J Burness, WS, now Burness LLP. He is currently Convenor of the Law Society of Scotland's Intellectual Property Committee, and a Member of the Franco-British Lawyers Society. In the past, he has been a Law Society of Scotland representative at the Union Internationale du Notariat Latin and Chairman of the Scottish Lawyers European Group.

The lecture will count for 1 hour CPD.

The meeting will commence at 6.00pm with registration and coffee. The talk will commence at 6.30pm.

SCOTTISH LAWYERS' EUROPEAN GROUP

I shall attend the lecture on Wednesday 20th February 2008 at The Law Society of Scotland, 26 Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh

Name: .....

Address / Legal Post.....
.....

Tel No: .....

Please complete and return by Monday 18 February 2008

Rosie Saunders
Secretary to the Scottish Lawyers European Group
The Faculty of Advocates, Training & Education Department
Mackenzie Building, Old Assembly Close
172 High Street, Edinburgh EH1 1QX